

You will please give me instructions on this subject. If this my request should be granted on information of the fact I will immediately forward the attendant expenses

Thro' Your benevolent exertions
my College Bills from time to time were erased of the last bill however I have no knowledge positively I now stand a Debtor - If so I wish it might not stand in the way of my present request as it shall be canceled immediately

Will You be good enough to make me returns soon as convenient

Yours H. N. C. Sexton

Price 1/20

PAID

Reverend Elihu Hall
President
Union College
Schenectady N.Y.

1822 Paid

W & J
Do President
July 20th 1822

The Doomsday Book of 1806-43, states that at the time the accompanying letter was written NOAH C. SEXTON owed a bill of $29.47.

CLASS OF 1818.

NOAH C. SEXTON.

Also in April, 1824, a work of divine grace commenced under the ministration of Rev. Noah C. Sexton, progressed rapidly, and forty-eight were added, four of whom entered the ministry. (Refers to Congregational Church, Hamburg, Town of Lyme, Conn.)

Hist. of New London Co., Conn
Pt. 2 p. 540.

NOAH C. SEXTON, non-graduate of 1818 of Wilbraham, Mass., was a member of the Adelpic Society.
Adelpic Catalogue 1830

1818

NOAH C. SEXTON.

Congregational Church, Hamburg, Town of Lynne, Conn.

Also in April, 1824, a work of divine grace commenced under the ministration of Rev. Noah C. Saxton, progressed rapidly, and 48 were added, 4 of whom entered the ministry.

Hist. of New London Co., Conn. pt.2 p-540

1818

NOAH C. SAXTON.

Minister of the Second Church (Congregational) in Greenwich, Conn., after 1828 -

p-396.

Noah C. Sexton

1818

973

Noah C. Sexton 1818
A.B.